To Whom It May Concern:

I, Shuhan Xu, a current master's student studying at Karolinska Institutet, is applying for a long-term student visa for entry into Switzerland.

I have received an offer for master thesis position from Professor Bernd Bodenmiller at the Institute for Molecular Life Science, University of Zurich. My thesis project will begin in January 2019 and end in January 2020. During this period, I will also be going back to Stockholm to present my thesis.

After my master project, I intend look for a Ph.D. position in Switzerland or return to Sweden to do my Ph.D.

Yours Sincerely,

Shuhan Xu
